PASSPORTS.

Dated the 17*th June* 1916.

No. 4240. The following is published for the information of British subjects who intend proceeding to the United Kingdom :—

A British subject intending to proceed to the United Kingdom shall not, without the special permission of a Secretary of State, land at any port in the United Kingdom unless he has in his possession a passport issued to him not more than two years previously by an authority in India empowered to issue such passports, or some other document satisfactorily establishing his nationality and identity, to which passport or document there must be attached a photograph of the British subject to whom it relates.

These restrictions do not apply to Military officers and men in uniform.

Dated the 17*th June* 1916.

No. 4241. The regulations of the French Government prohibit foreigners entering or quitting the undermentioned places without a passport vise by a competent French official :—

Morocco, Algeria and France.

As an exception, however, British officers, non-commissioned officers and men, when travelling on duty (whether such duty is in England or in France), may land without passports if they are in uniform and possess movement orders or leave certificates and in the case of non-commissioned officers and men when they can produce Army pay books and identity discs.

Passports must be carried by officers, non-commissioned officers and men when travelling otherwise than on duty.

T. ST. G. TUCKER,
First Assistant Resident.
